SUBJECT: SUMMER RECREATION REGISTRATION DAY – MAY 6

Elk Grove, CA – Summer fun is just around the corner. The Elk Grove Community Services District (CSD) invites you and you family to join the fun and get active in classes, clinics and programs offered by the CSD Department of Parks and Recreation.

Activity Guides containing CSD recreation offerings were distributed by mail to all CSD residents in April featuring a variety of summer activities for youth, adults, and families. New items introduced this summer include a Community Camp Out at Elk Grove Park and classes such as Kids Self-Defense & Safety, Learn to Facepaint, Learn to be a D.J., Youth & Adult Archery, and Fun with Rubber Stamping. Family fun nights, recreation swimming, swim lessons, and Birthday party pool packages are also offered at Elk Grove Pool this summer through the CSD.

Families on a limited income are encouraged to participate in CSD summer programming by applying for "Operation Clyde," the CSD Recreation Activity Assistance Fund. This fund provides financial assistance -- up to $100 per child per year -- to local families who may not otherwise afford to enroll their children in classes, programs, and other CSD activities. Contact the Department of Parks & Recreation for more information about fund eligibility.

Walk-in, phone and fax registration will be accepted beginning May 6 at the CSD Building at 8820 Elk Grove Blvd. Additional copies of the Activity Guide are available at the CSD Building, Laguna Town Hall or available by download on the CSD web site at www.egcsd.ca.gov. For more information, contact CSD Parks & Recreation at (916) 685-3917.
